HE FOUND BILL STOLTZ.

The Experiences of Capt. Jenks, a Pension Examiner, in North Carolinia.

Treated Like a Prince by the Leading Moonshiner of Them All.

The Mountaineer's Idea of a Fortune and the Use to Which He Put It.

Capt E. M. Jenks, whose Quaker training did not prevent him from entering the army when the call for volunteers came in '61, has, since the close of the war, been in the government service as a pension examiner, says the New York Star. He is a tall, graybearded man, with the air of a soldier about him. I met him a few days ago, just as he had returned from a trip to North Carolina.

"I have just been down among the moonshiners of the North Carolina mountains," he said, "and they are peculiar set of folks, I tell you. It took considerable headwork after I reached my base of operations. I had left the railroad and ridden on horseback some twenty miles over the rough roads and steep bridle paths, enjoying the scenery, occasionally passing a word or two with the box who acted as my guide, and for me to get the information I wanted with the boy who acted as my guide, and keeping up a pretty vigorous thinking as to how I could accomplish my object, when, about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, we suddenly came to a mountaineer's cabin at a fork in the road. As I rode up I thought I saw a man disappear in the woods behind the house, and it startled me a little, but I rode up and halloed. At first there was no reply except the bay of a hound that planted himself in front of the door, but after a few calls a tall, gaunt woman in a linsey woolsey dress opened the door and came

If it hadn't been for him, I should have still been looking for Bill's place. Well, I roamed over those mountains for three weeks with that moonshiner, slept with him and ate with him, and I was as safe under his guidance as if I had been at home. I told him, when we started out, that I didn't want to see any whisky nor any stills, because that wasn't my business, and I wanted to be able to say I had seen none on that trip. I have no doubt I was often near one, but I didn't know it. When I wanted certain people Bill would take me to some cabin in the mountains and send for them. Then, when they came, he would tell them it was all right, and I got all the testimony I wanted, gave him the money to pay expenses, and at the end of the three weeks he reckoned it up mentally, and gave me the items, day by day, for my account, which surprised me very much. When I asked him how much I owed him he said he said he didn't know exactly, but thought 50 cents a day would do. He was astonished beyond measure when I paid him at the rate of $5 a day for twenty-five days, and said he hadn't owned so much money in his life before, so he 'reckoned he'd buy the old woman a dress.' If I'm ever sent into that country again I'll hire Bill to help me."

A Dutchman's Idea.

"I am afraid," said the business man, "that the natural gas about Pittsburg is getting exhausted. They've been simply wasting it,"

"Vell," said an old Dutchman, "wot you expect from dem - fools. They haven't got no sense. Why don't they keep on making more of dot natural gas to replace it with, just like the forestry laws, where they makes them put down one new tree for every one they cuts down?"—San Fran-

Unsurpassed in the World.

The vestibuled trains of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, running daily between St. Paul and Minneapolis and Milwaukee and Chicago, are the perfection of modern railway equipment, and are unsurpassed in the world. They consist of elegant day coaches, Pullman's latest and best sleeping cars and the finest dining cars in the country. These trains are lighted by electricity and heated by steam, and afford to the traveler every comfort and convenience to be had at the very best hotels. All classes of tickets are honored on these trains and the rates are no higher than by other lines. It is for this reason that discriminating travelers patronize this company and insist that their tickets read over its line, as they naturally want the best service for their money. daily between St. Paul and Minneapolis

Herculean Strength

Continually on the strain, or overtaxed at intervals, is far less desirable than ordinary intervals, is far less desirable than ordinary vigor perpetuated by rational diet and exercise, and abstention from excess. Professional pugilists and athletes rarely attain old age. As ordinary vigor may be retained by wise regard for sanitary living, and for the protection against disease which timely and judicious medication affords, so also it may be lost through prolonged sedentary labor, uninterrupted mental strain, and foolish eating and drinking, the chief and most immediate sequence of all four being dyspepsia. For this condition thus, or in any way induced, and for its offspring, a failure of muscular and nerve power, Hostetters Stomach Bitters is the primest and most genial of remedies. Not only indigestion, but loss of flesh, appetite and sleep are remedied by it. Incipient malaria and rheumatism are banished, and kidney, bowel and liver complaint removed by it.

Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Latz." Thus writes W. C. Hamrick & Co. of Shelby, N. C. Get a free trial bottle at R. S. Hale & Co.'s drug store.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult, druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles and was cured of rheuma-tism of ten years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my twenty years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the ver-dict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys or blood. Only half a dollar a bottle at R. S. Hale & Co.'s drug store.

Winter Excursions to California.

On the 15th day of every month the Northern Pacific Railroad company will sell excursion tickets to San Francisco and re land—by steamer, or by rail, via the famous Mount Shasta route.

Bear in mind that the Northern Pacific is the only line running through sleeping and dining cars to the Pacific coast. A. D. EDGAR, General Agent.

What a Fortune.

Is a good healthy, pearly skin. Few are aware of the short time it takes for a disordered liver to cause blotches on the face, and a dark greasy skin. One bottle of BEGGS' BLOOD PURIFIER and BLOOD MAKER will restore this organ to its natural and healthy state, and cleanse the blood of all impurities. It is meeting with wonderful success. We guarantee every bottle. R. S. Hale & Co., Druggists.
